DULLES RESIGNATION

PEKING NCNA IN ENGLISH TO ASIA 0809 28 SEP 61 B

(TEXT) PEKING, 28 SEPTEMBER--U.S. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY DIRECTOR ALLEN DULLES IS TO RESIGN IN NOVEMBER, U.S. PRESIDENT KENNEDY ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY IN NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND, ACCORDING TO A WASHINGTON REPORT. KENNEDY ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT HE HAD APPOINTED JOHN MCCONE, FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE U.S. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, TO REPLACE ALLEN DULLES. MCCONE WILL SERVE CONCURRENTLY AS CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT INTELLIGENCE BOARD.

ALLEN DULLES HAS HEADED THE CIA, AN ESPIONAGE ORGANIZATION, SINCE 1953. HE IS NOTORIOUS FOR THE SUBVERSIVE AND SPYING ACTIVITIES HE PLANNED AND ORGANIZED AGAINST OTHER COUNTRIES. AFTER THE SHOOTING DOWN LAST YEAR OF THE U.S. U-2 SPY PLANE WHICH ENCROACHED ON SOVIET TERRITORIAL AIR AND AFTER THE ROUTING LAST APRIL OF THE U.S. MERCENARIES WHICH INVADDED CUBA, ALLEN DULLES AND HIS CIA WAS ATTACKED BY PERSONS AMONG U.S. RULING CIRCLES WHO ACCUSED HIM AND HIS AGENCY OF INEFFICIENCY AND OF BEING POORLY INFORMED. FOLLOWING THE DEFEAT OF THE U.S. MERCENARIES' INVASION OF CUBA, KENNEDY APPOINTED HIS MILITARY ADVISER, FORMER ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF TAYLOR, TO INVESTIGATE THE WORK OF THE CIA. KENNEDY HAS ALSO TAKEN STEPS TO STRENGTHEN THE AGENCY.

IN ANNOUNCING ALLEN DULLES' RESIGNATION AND MCCONE'S APPOINTMENT, KENNEDY SAID THAT HE WANTED THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY TO CONTINUE AS AN "EFFECTIVE INSTRUMENT OF OUR COUNTRY'S POLICY." HE ADDED THAT ALLEN DULLES WOULD SERVE AS HIS CONSULTANT ON INTELLIGENCE.
